ANACOSTIA.

Funeral services for William Edward Tew, seventy-five years of age, were held yesterday from his late home, on Good Hope road, followed by interment in Glenwood Cemetery. Mr. Tew was born in England in 1839, and came to this country in 1850 with his parents and settled in Osford. N. Y. At the outbreak of the civil war he tried to enlist with the Union army, but was rejected on account of disability. He then entered the service as a hospital steward. On July 6, 1868, he married Margaret Buchanan in old Foundry Church, this city, and the couple have lived in this city ever since. He was employed in the Postoffice Department for thirty-seven years. Besides his widow, four sons, George E., Arthur H., Albert B., and Frank F., and one daughter, Mrs. Edith J. Lee, survive him.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia renewed its meetings yesterday at the home of Mrs. William Scantlebury, on Minnesota avenue. Mrs. Edmund Mallett was in charge of the instruction. Others present were Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Walter W. Tolson, Miss Viola Mallett, and Mrs. Thomas Linwood Moore. Senator and Mrs. Porter J. McCumber will be among the dinner hosts this evening, entertaining at the Army and Navy Club in honor of their daughter, Miss Helen McCumber, and her house guest, Miss Alleen Roach, of Baltimore. Last evening Senator and Mrs. McCumber and Miss McCumber gave a dinner at the Chevy Chase Club.

Inspections of mules are being held by British buyers at Kansas City, St. Louis, and Nashville, Tenn. The animals are costing the British government nearly $250,000 weekly. Her purchases to date represent an expenditure of more than $1,250,000. Great Britialn has been able to raise billions of dollars in special war loans, but dealers in mules declare that her enormous expenditure for their animals prove that she considers them indispensable in war.

England Alone Buying. While Great Britain is the only European belligerent now buying mules for her armies, negotiations are being carried on with agents of the French and Italian governments by Missouri mule dealers, and it is probable that these countries will place contracts for mules in the near future. A lack of appreciation of the great value of souri say, is the reason for the failure of the French government, which is buying thousands of cavalry and artil-lery horses weekly in the United States to take mules.
